

Firefighters of the Year

Fire Captain Josh Scheib was voted by his peers as staff firefighter of the year for his leadership skills, firefighter/EMT skills, and training skills. He received special commendation for his excellent work teaching community CPR/First Aid classes.

Volunteer Firefighter Sarah Pennington was also voted by her peers as volunteer firefighter of the year for her firefighter skills. She received special commendation for her leadership and excellent work with the Groveland Volunteer Firefighters' Association and the ROP Fire Science program.